

It all started 400 years ago when the first #lithuanian - pilgrim Andrius Rudamina SJ set foot on #India's soil. It restarted 10 ago when the beautiful marble stone was unveiled in front of Se Cathedral to mark the occasion by the then #Lithuania's ambassador in India Laimonas Talat-Kelpša, supported by HE Archishop Ferrao of Goa and helped by Lithuania's friend Arvind Sukhani who is now Honorary Consul of Lithuania in Kolkata.

Story continued!

Here is the flashback of last week's celebration of 400th anniversary of the first Lithuanian in India in Goa in the presence of so many friends of Lithuania! Wood carving statue of Andrius Rudamina unveiled in the Museum of Se Cathedral, book on Rudamina's journey by Laimonas Talat-Kelpša launched & talk on parallels in Christian Art in #Lithuania and #India by @sigita.maslauskaite at @mocagoaofficial Without the first there would have not been the second! Time to thank all those mentioned and unmentioned for their enthusiastic ideas and support without which this festival of friendship between #lithuania & #india would have been impossible! #peopletopeople

<https://www.facebook.com/share/r/17aktUKZUJ/?mibextid=wwXlfr>